

Dadaclub.online: the Exhibition

From March 25 to April 15 at Spazio Contemporanea, Brescia

On February 5, 2016 the Link Art Center launched Dadaclub.online, an online archive and creative platform meant to celebrate the dada legacy in the centenary of dada's birth, that took place in Zurich on February 5, 1916. For a year, Dadaclub.online has been a place for uninterrupted experimentation, promoting the creative reuse of digital copies of original dada artworks. On February 5, 2017, when we stopped publishing updates, the platform offered 148 artworks, and had been visited 248,672 times.

Now, we are happy to announce that, from March 25 to April 15, 2017, all these artworks will be on show at Spazio Contemporanea, Brescia, Italy, alongside some dada originals kindly offered by Collezione Campiani. The exhibition will be a unique opportunity to trace the relationship between the original artworks and the tributes paid by the participants in the project, thanks to a setup that will aggregate these tributes around the most perused originals, by artists like Man Ray, Marcel Duchamp, Paul Citroen, László Moholy-Nagy, Hans Richter and Hannah Höch, and the covers of magazines like New York Dada, 391 and Le cœur à barbe.

Furthermore, a catalogue will be published by Link Editions, archiving the project in paper form. Below, you can find a complete list of all the participants in the online platform, and in the exhibition.

Dada is nothing, enjoy Dada!
